Best and most authentic French bakery in the city. Prices are not the cheapest but they are more reasonable than most other French bakeries and cafés. I have been going here consistently for 3 years and don't plan on stopping. read more. What Ian Melamud doesn't like about Patisserie 27:

They removed the tables since the lockdowns, but started prompting for a tip, with a very generous suggestions. They are only open for a handful of hours 5 days a week and are oriented on the retired boomers. The food is good, but the attitude is insulting. read more.
