What Tom Oliver likes about Towne Pizza: I only live a block from Towne Pizza and we order at least once a week. The food is consistently well done and the staff is courteous and friendly. In spite of always ordering a gluten free item and having a very picky child, there was only once our order wasn't 100% correct. They took care of us promptly and with a smile. The menu is varied with interesting combinations and great choices besides pizza. Among the fav... read more. I'm all for supporting local businesses but this one I'm staying away. Small portions and over priced. I called about my order being wrong and her response was I told you while you made the order, which if I was I wouldn't have order the donair. The poutine was small, for the price of I was expecting something bigger. The Philly cheese steak pizza was a ground beef not steak! Was expecting to be satisfied but am v... read more.
