Food was very good! Love the marbled bread and the special of the day was southwest chickens and corn that was the best I have ever had. I don't remember what it was called but I had a chicken sandwich which was good but the inside was cut fine and cucumbers made it mushy. Iceberg lettuce would have been better but it was flavorful. The beer drinkers in our group loved the Backhand of God Beer. Hard to find according... read more.
