What User likes about Harvest Table: This is a nice little "plaza" type restaurant. Very family friendly with great service and excellent food. Lots of free parking. We went for dinner with family. The fish and chips were excellent and so was the baby beef liver. Large portions and we had to take some to go. Family goes here regularly. Recommended and we will be going back often. read more. When the weather conditions is nice you can also eat outside, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Harvest Table: The people who own it and work there are fantastic but the restaurant itself really needs a makeover. The food is basic and just ok - breakfast is the best meal of the day there. However, if I was to choose I would go to Coras. read more.
