Only stopped in here once on a coffee run, but it was a nice surprise. The dough is very light for a sticky bun, which was nice. Had the sour cherry and the toffee/caramel buns - first being great, the second just fine. Haven't seen this place open again yet, but am now looking for it when on Portage - will definitely stop by there again.

Tried this when it was first open and still cannot fathom why people are so crazy about their cinnamon buns.

Buns are pretty average - nothing that really sets them apart or makes them memorable. Tried again recently and my opinion hasn't changed. I wouldn't make the effort to buy these. I have passed by many times when they should be open, but hours are erratic! read more.
