In a city with hundreds of sushi restaurants, it's hard to stand out. Instead of being cute or oddly inventive, Wild Sushi does this with reliable excellent sushi and higher quality ingredients than the others in the neighbourhood. We have been to many, many other sushi places in the city, but Wild Sushi is in the top 1% for food. The staff are pleasant and inviting to families with children and the decor is pleasant... Food is really low quality. They use a very small amount of avocado in their rolls to save ingredients. Worse still, they all serve greasy fries. It was soaked with oil. That's very disappointing. Cook took orders and made food and he served everything. They didn't even give me a bill. I have to pay at the counter, but they only told me the total price. Poor service and slow food. I will never visit again. read more.
