Stopped by for an after dinner drink. The bartender knew his wines and recommended a lovely, chewy mouthful (which I can't remember what it was). It would be more of a trendy place for the city. The bartender was sharing his favourite places to dine and drink which were also helpful. If you want a libation stop in here. They also have food, but I didn't have any as it was a nightcap, or three. read more. When the weather is nice you can also have something outside, and there is no-charge WiFi. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for guests with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What Nashim Gargari doesn't like about Obladee:

Food and wine were passable. But for the price and the hype of the place, we were expecting something better. The chairs are very uncomfortable and there's a lack of local wines. read more. Obladee is renowned for its diverse Canadian menus, which are prepared with ingredients typical of the country, In addition, the cocktail menu that is offered in this established eatery is impressive. It offers a diverse assortment of beers from the region and the whole world. After the meal (or during it), you can still relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink. The meat is freshly cooked here on an open flame.
