Dropped in as we were passing through Cranbrook. This was our second time stopping here. The coffee was so memorable from the first time that we were determined to visit again. The second time did not disappoint. These guys are able to do a dark roast coffee without the coffee tasting bitter - excellent! Two young ladies were working. Both were very friendly and provided excellent service. We'll definitely be stoppin... read more. What User doesn't like about Kootenay Roasting Co.:

I stepped into the Kootenay Roasting Company recently after walking by it many times while visiting Cranbrook. Inside it looks very comfortable...chairs, easy chairs, couches, etc. But - the service I received at the counter was rude and impatient. I don't know if the woman at the till was simply having a bad day...but rude enough and abrupt enough that I'm taking the time to write this review. And...when I got my co... read more.
