What User likes about Villa Armando: We often lunch or dine with family or friends at the Villa Armando, it has a homely feel of shabby chic. The food is wholesome unsophisticated & consistently delicious. The service is unceremonially attentive & efficient pleasantly complemented with background music. You can order à la carte or opt for the lunch menu which offers a choice of soup or salad a main and a dessert. read more. In nice weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Villa Armando: My wife and I Love Restaurants but see no reason to come back here. First the good news. The old stone house decor is cute and the waiters were attentive and pleasant to be around. It pretty much ends there. We both tasted each other's food and here's the rundown. Lentil potatoe soup: me, ok - my wife, boring. Carpaccio : me boring (the cheese should be a little older) and the beef was tasteless. my wife, n/a. Porcini Risot... read more.
