This place was a great stop for a quick breakfast! We planned on exploring the nearby Kensington Market and found Mars Food randomly. The food was exquisite and the service was top notch. read more. What User doesn't like about Mars Food:

This is a childhood favourite. My dad would often pick up muffins from here and bring them home for us. It was always a real treat to eat a meal in this cramped, narrow diner. Today, three generations sat down in a squishy booth that hasn't changed much in at least the last forty years. The same can be said for most items on the menu. Bacon and eggs, French toast... And the ever wonderful home fries. The service was... read more.
