Talking English there was a bit of a language barrier, but the staff made every attempt to make us comfortable and understand. The food was great and some Scotch weren't bad either. read more. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about La Cage:

Got there on a Friday night. We had been on the road for a few hours. Decided to stop and get a room at the hotel that is attached to the restaurant. Was told the kitchen closes at 10. We got there at 10:10, even if the place was full of customers they would not allow us to order any food just drinks. Did not stay found another place that was willing to let us order read more. For breakfast, you can enjoy a diverse brunch at La Cage, as much as you want, It's worth mentioning that the typical Canadian dishes are well received by the guests of the local. After the meal (or during it), you can still relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, The visitors of the establishment are also thrilled with the comprehensive variety of differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant offers.
