4/5: According to my wife, who is part Italian, 'It 's just like Mama used to make!' I had the meatball sangwich (very tasty) and my wife had the lasagna (large portion, very authentic). Half the place is an Italian bakery and deli, and the other half is a cafeteria-style dining room. Decor is dated, but the food is fresh and tasty. Lunch for two, including pop and tax: $14.44. Very hard to beat that with authentic, quality food. What Michael Ratos

doesn't like about Tre Rose Bakery:

I recently had some catering done with TreRose, I usually go to Mama Martinos but wanted to give the bakery a chance. The food was okay but the service was terrible. The owner would not lift a finger to help with carrying out any of the order nor would he ask his staff, he was very arrogant and did not care or had a clue about customer service. I injured my hand otherwise would not have needed their help. This will b... read more.
