What Arnie Leedholm likes about Les Moulins La Fayette: This place is a hidden treasure. Everything there is very good from the sandwiches, pastries and coffee. It is very busy and sometimes hard to get a table, but it's worth the wait. read more. The restaurant offers complimentary WLAN for its visitors, And into the accessible rooms also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What Andrea S doesn't like about Les Moulins La Fayette:

We had the almond croissant (average), pistachio croissant (excellent), and triple chocolate mousse cake (average). Bit overpriced given the quality/size of the baked goods (Yum and Good Bear nearby are better in both respects). Great service and ambiance. read more. With the extensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties, a visit to Les Moulins La Fayette becomes even more attractive, The delicious sandwiches, small salads and other snacks are also suitable for a snack. No matter the occasion - a ceremony - the in-house catering makes it easy to enjoy the food from Les Moulins La Fayette at home, Moreover, the enchanting desserts of the house shine not only in the eyes of our little guests.
