Really great food at a decent price. They're very quick for takeout orders. The restaurant is clean. Their dishes are done very well. Love their chicken chow mein dish. Vegetarian options: Vegetarian options and they're really accommodating. Wheelchair accessibility: Restaurant is on street and ground level so easy to wheelchair in. read more. What User doesn't like about Dining Wok Shanghai:

Paying this much for Chinese food usually means you pay for quality, but that 's not the case here. The sesame chicken was 100% their lemon chicken with sesame seeds sprinkled on and drowned in syrup. The beef was totally tasteless and mushy, the noodles were dry and the chicken in the soup had gone foul. If this were a cheap late night eat I 'd chalk it up to that but it is $18-22 per dish and so not worth near that.... read more. Traditional
