It was our first time here so we didn't order a lot so we could try it out. Everything was not very spicy so we will ask for more spice next time. They had yummy thick lemon sauce, crispy egg rolls and we got enough sauce for them. We loved how they cut chicken into bite sizes pieces chicken in lemon and Tao chicken. Weirdly there is no Almond guy ding (because of allergies) so we took the chicken guy ding which was... read more. What Chico C doesn't like about Dragon Rouge:

Just ate there this evening. They had a buffet out. Lots of choices, so I figured I would try most of it. The egg rolls were good, but the egg roll sauce has too much vinegar. The chicken fried rice was dry and tasted like it came out of a box. The chicken balls had a 1/2 inch piece of chicken in it, and a huge amount of breading. The breading was real dry. The garlic spare ribs were tough. The soup was ok. The shrim... read more. The extensive variety of coffee and tea specialties greatly enhances the value of a visit to Dragon Rouge, Many customers show especially their enthusiasm for the versatile, delicious Chinese cuisine. After the meal (or during it), you have the opportunity to also relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, for breakfast they serve a varied breakfast here.
