Great Canadian Chinese food, always served up real quick, super hot and fresh. Often a line up of take out orders on weekends, and tables can fill up, but worth the wait. Owners are hard working, friendly folks. read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. What Shaun Takata doesn't like about Uncle Roy's Restaurant:

I guess it's hard when there is no competition for Chinese food. This place was terrible. Apparently they don't try their chowmein noodles, likely because people who eat there have no idea what they are supposed to be. Neither did the server. How can you serve food and not know what it's supposed to be like? I should have gone to the fish and Chips place instead. read more. If you want to spoil your palate with a bit of culinary flair, this is the place to be: The original Asian fusion cuisine of the Uncle Roy's Restaurant from Midland - a delicious mix of traditional and the unexpected, It shows that the traditional Canadian dishes are well received by the guests of the restaurant. The versatile, savory Chinese cuisine has many followers among visitors, In the morning a hearty brunch is offered here.
