We went there Sunday for brunch. At 11:30 there was already a line. We waited around 20-30 minutes I think before being set at a table. The service was good considering how busy it was. The food was also delicious. My poached eggs were very well cooked and the yolk leaked on the smoked salmon. I liked the spicy mayonnaise on top to give it a kick. The portions are generous and pleasing to the eyes. It was definitely... read more. What
