What Adnan R likes about Alam Cuisine: I heard about them recently and went to try their Qeema Naan(minced meat naan) and it was really good. Service is good and place is clean. Liked their Nihari as well. I have to try more items from them but so far so good. read more. The premises on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, and there is complimentary WiFi. What Naomi R doesn't like about Alam Cuisine: Spent $8 on rotten cane juice today. Worst customer service ever! They were rude, ill-mannered and refused to refund my money or give me another beverage worth that amount! I will be spreading the word to all my relatives and whole neighborhood to never step foot in that restaurant ever! If they can serve rotten cane juice, I can just imagine what food they serve! read more. An additional service offered by the establishment is the catering service for customers, Especially the flavorful juices are highly appreciated by the visitors. Most often, the burgers of this place, which are among the highlights, are offered along with filling side dishes like fries, leaf and cabbage salads or wedges, guests repeatedly praise the scrumptious, light flatbread that can be dipped into the homemade hummus or a yoghurt dip; the intense combination of figs and goat cheese is among the hits from the diverse culinary landscape of the Middle East.
