We ate dinner here on a Thursday evening after touring downtown. We had eaten all kinds of snacks beforehand, so we were not very hungry but needed to eat before going to Epic Escape. We shared the ttuk mandu guk (rice cake and dumpling soup) and bulgogi. The dishes were tasty and very straightforward. The dishes were well-seasoned but not too salty. The banchan offerings were limited to three dishes and we are used... read more. When the weather is good you can also have something outside. What User doesn't like about King Sejong:
