A wonderful modern setting with large portions of Ethiopian food at affordable prices. As other reviews have mentioned, there is generally only one server. I went at 05:00 PM and was the only customer however by 06:00 PM the place was filling up and service slowed down as a result. The food is great, the service is friendly, and the prices are good. There is something to satisfy all palettes and diets. read more. What User doesn't like about Gohe Ethiopian Restaurant:

We had sambusa and the vegetarian platter. The sambusa were fresh made and tasty but not stand-out. The roasted vegetables in the vegetarian platter were amongst the best I have had in the city in any restaurant, mentally taking me back to a decade ago when the now-closed Civita used to make wood-roasted vegetables. The cabbage dish was also pretty good. The salad was fresh and light. However, the pea and bean based d... read more. With the large range of coffee and tea specialties, a visit to Gohe Ethiopian Restaurant becomes even more attractive, and you can look forward to the tasty traditional seafood cuisine. You can also look forward to scrumptious vegetarian cuisine, There are also oven-warm breads and snacks, complemented by a variety of both cold and hot drinks.
