What User likes about Harman's Cafe: We go to this place several times per year, and the experience is always pleasant. The service is friendly, and fast compared to other Ethiopian restaurants we have been to, and the three small sides that accompany the dishes are just another example of the owner's attention to detail. Injera is always perfect and I wish I could make it at home. Buying it here and reheating it is okay but far from having it fresh. read more.
