What User likes about Rinda's Kitchen: We shared some curry rolls and a chicken red curry and it was delicious. After cycling to Marble Mountain and back and hiking up to Man in the Mountain it really hit the spot. Fast and friendly service. It almost made our vehicle breaking down in Cornerbrook for three days worth it. read more. What User doesn't like about Rinda's Kitchen:

We ate surprisingly good Thai curries here (Red and Massoman). They obviously do 90% of their business as take-away. There are a couple small formica tables in front and two picnic tables in the gravel forecourt. We ate in with plastic utensils - no table service. They happily swapped tofu for meat to make our curries vegetarian. People were being told there would be a 45 min wait for their take-away. Phone and order... read more.
