We are real lovers of fish and chips and this place was our first choice when we visited Burlington. We had the haddock and we delighted with the freshness, the light crispy batter and the great service. The chips were also perfectly done. I can remember having anything better. read more. What User doesn't like about Halibut House: Went based on people raving about this place being the best fish & chips in the city. Located in strip mall, lots of parking available. We were the only patrons in restaurant on a friday night. Service was just ok, not attentive, never asked if refill on drinks. We each had a different fish on menu. I had the cod, portion was small, were lots of fries. There was too much batter on fish, and could not taste fish. othe... read more. A visit to Halibut House is particularly valuable due to the extensive selection of coffee and tea specialties, and you may look forward to the delicious typical seafood cuisine. If you decide to come for breakfast, you are offered a hearty brunch, The original Canadian dishes are a hit among the customers of the restaurant.
