I was in London for the weekend and I had a craving for pasta. Tony's was the first place I looked up and I was glad I ordered from them. Tony's is as advertised total comfort food with very hefty portions. Totally delicious. I had the penne carbonara and my wife had the spaghetti bolgnese. We both could not finish our dinners because the portions were so big. That would be my only criticism. Will be visiting them ag... read more. What User

doesn't like about Tony's Famous Italian:

We had not had a panzerotti in a very longtime, we had a craving to try again...what a disappointment, we had forgotten they are deep fried with excessive thick doe that absorbs all the grease. Had the runs all night long. Will never buy again, need to find a local place that sells backed calzones. read more. In Tony's Famous Italian, a restaurant with Italian menus from London, you can expect original Italian cuisine, including classics like pizza and pasta, It's worth mentioning that the versatile Canadian dishes are well received by the guests of the establishment.
