This is our favourite place on the lower mainland for fish and chips. We usually go for lunch when we're over in Mission for any reason. The lunch special is all you can eat for a very reasonable price and includes coffee. They serve three pieces of cod for the special and when you're down to one piece, they ask if they can throw another couple of pieces on for you, so it's hot when it comes. I've only once asked for... read more. As a visitor, you can use the WLAN of the establishment at no extra cost, And into the accessible rooms also come customers with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about The Wee Chippie:

We've been here a few times since they opened up a few years ago. Boy oh boy, has this place spiralled downhill fast. The first time the food was great, service was ok. The cod was moist inside and batter just right.

The second time we ordered take away and it was the worst fish and chips experience we have ever experienced. The cod was dripping from grease, it was incredibly bitter, the fries overcooked and greasy a... read more. A visit to The Wee Chippie becomes even more rewarding due to the comprehensive range of coffee and tea specialties, It shows that the typical Canadian meals are well received by the customers of the establishment. Moreover, there are a wealth of classically British meals on the list that will evoke nostalgic feelings in every Brit abroad, and you can look forward to the delicious classic seafood cuisine.
