My wife, daughter (18 years old) and I were quite apprehensive walking towards "La Barberie." It is located in a very unattractive (but safe) part of the town, just under the flyover near to the train station. However, once you get inside the building and grounds you realise that it is a little oasis. Very pleasant and large side patio (not talking about the one at the front of the building), with plenty of greenery.... read more. The premises on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities. Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What User doesn't like about La Barberie:

I have to rate this place poorly solely based on their poor customer service. I have never been to a bar where the bartender cashes you out after one drink, without even asking if you'd like another. A bartender cashing me out after my first drink is basically telling me they don't want me to give them any more money. So I didn't. In my opinion, just go Noctem or Korrigane instead. Their beer is better and the staff... read more. During a meal, a good drink is essential. In this gastropub, you not only get delicious dishes from the menu but also a comprehensive and particularly good assortment of good beers and other alcoholic beverages that go well with the food, The barbecued food is freshly cooked here on an open flame. It should not be forgotten that there is a comprehensive variety of coffee and tea specialties in this restaurant, In addition, the current games or races can be watched on the big screen in this sports bar, which the customers also love.
