For people who think this ice cream is overpriced, think again. They still use the original recipe which means it doesn't have all the additives that you find in the ice cream at the grocery store. This place is a local gem. If you think the product or service is less than stars I suggest you open your own ice cream place and find out just how challenging it is. Thank you Meghan and Mark for keeping your family legac... read more. What User doesn't like about Mackay's Ice Cream:

the ice itself is pretty good. a little less dense than my preference, but still quite good. I love how different and unusual the aromen are. there is something about unusual flavors that makes it seem more exciting than dairy queen or something. the line up when we went was quite long (which is understandable for how popular the place is), so if they are impatient or have small children with them, I think they are b...
