This is the small cafe serving Starbucks inside the Doubletree Fallsview Hotel. For an establishment inside a hotel, their prices are very reasonable and likely in line with regular Starbucks stores elsewhere in Ontario. They serve coffee and espresso based drinks as well as bakery goods. I didn 't get to try, but they also serve alcohol at night. Nothing extraordinary but it 's a very reasonable option for people on... read more. The restaurant offers free WLAN for its customers, And into the accessible spaces also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. If the weather conditions are right, you can also eat and drink outside. What User doesn't like about Moose Squirrel Small Batch Coffee:

brought my little children into this restaurant. Eat came fast and was hot. Woman loved French union soup but service was very bad. After our first drink, no one asked us if we would like another. I also ordered the filet steak medium rare and no one checked for quality of food, which was not good. filet was cooked too medium, but the outside was burned, which is strange for a 50 dollar steak. my wife didn't like her...
