I would have given the fifth star. The meals were great, but the prices are on the high side for this style of restaurant. At the bread grill, many loafs were missing and no one was filling them back. The meals arrived moments after being ordered which some may find great but this means our meals were pre cooked and it ruins the opportunity to have a conversation. For two, each with a glass of wine was north of 100$. A... read more.
