Went for lunch with friends. The place is nice. The food was very good and for the price (12$, you get the soup (nice flavors , the main dish a dessert and coffee. My friend really liked the General Tao chicken. The service is fast, but don't expect luxury. I will go back. I often go to La Praya, which is a couple blocks away on the same street, and the food is similar. I will go back. read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and be served in nice weather. What Frederic G doesn't like about Au Bon Gout d'Asie:

Nothing really stands out from my visit to Au bon gout d'Asie, but the food was good, it wasn't too crowded and the price was good. Very similar to other asian food restaurants in the area. Most choices on the menu are under 15$. The soups are delicious. I ordered a shrimp sauté and there were only 4 medium shrimps in my plate. Not for the big hunger, but for a healthy lunch, it was ok. Not wheelchair accessible at a... read more. Au Bon Gout d'Asie The groundbreaking Asian fusion cuisine will thrill you, the exquisite mix of familiar flavors and exciting new creations will amaze!, The tasty desserts of the local also shine not only in the eyes of our little guests. The meals are prepared according to typical Asian style, But above all, there are robust German meals with matching sides like potatoes as well as salads.
