I highly recommend giving this place an attempt, it is worth the ride and any line up that could be there! read more. The diner and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, and there is complimentary WiFi. If the weather conditions are right, you can also eat and drink outside. What User doesn't like about La Dolce Vita: extremely rude staff, on the vaterday from all days confused our order. if we have corrected them and how we have paid for a more expensive option, they say that we have not paid, they humiliate and cried us also after the offer to pay again. if they want to support a company that is worth supporting, I recommend to them the tommy caffe down on the street, much more friendly.
