I know it's franchise, but sometimes the smaller towns Franchises are not so dedicated to the gluten-free process, but they did a fantastic job. Super stay for food and food. One of the better Boston Pizza experiences we had. read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, and there is complimentary WLAN. If the weather are right, you can also eat and drink outside. What kulshan aujla doesn't like about Boston Pizza:

I feel very disrespected with my experience at bps osoyoos, one of the servers (Allan) feels uncomfortable with my friends, since we are all east Indians and declined to serve us and the manager was completely okay with it and said we can wait 15 to 20 minutes to get served, even though there were many available tables. I would never come back here again after today, even though I have been here many times. Thanks BPS... read more.
