Certain food items needed to be replaced faster than they were in the breakfast section for the Sunday Brunch. More items would be an asset. Outside of this, the food was of good quality and the service was exceptional. Can't wait for the renovations to be completed! Looking forward to the old days of the buffets at the Pan Pacific where there was a much larger variety of food offered. read more. No sufficient food and very limited options. Frozen shrimps, small pieces of salmon and white fish, and small scallops in salads might be only seafood restaurants offered. No roasted beef, pork, chicken, and only had lamb cooked with green. Many customers complained for no food. I would say the only thing made us satisfied was the waitress's smile. The $72.00 cost before tax and tip each person meal is definitely not... read more.
