What User likes about ThimbleCakes: They make coconut based ice cream (I assume it is dairy free, or else why bother?) It was very good for a hot April day. My fiancé and I also got three cupcakes to go. They were all excellent. They had some cool Easter themed cupcakes with mini eggs and other sprinkles. I just got a vanilla but it was still delicious. We will be back. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in nice weather. What User doesn't like about ThimbleCakes:

I went to this place a few days ago to buy some cupcakes to share with my colleagues. The inside is quite charming and really makes you want to hang out for a coffee. there was a nice selection of cupcakes, and good options for those who would have food restrictions. Cupcakes like these were cute, but they're not the best I ate. some were a little too sweet, others a little too fades. the one with lemon is the one wh... read more.
