I hardly give 5 stars, but this place is amazing. eating is so good. the location is easy to find and the host was so very nice and made a great job-filling looked like she was the only one who did it all. They can either sit inside or outside and both are uniquely decorated with a great atmosphere. eating is a German-Mediterranean kitchen and it is proportions are an excellent size. I highly recommend it when they a... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in nice weather. What User doesn't like about Elke's Table On 47th:

you will find good reviews with locals. (friends) I shouldn't have paid! Do they know which fish and chips these others have eaten, but $60 for 2 wet tasteless white fish? we were both unimpressed and left the greatest part of the diligent on the teller. but I paid because I was stupid enough to eat it and a nice person. then went to the food store afterwards for more food.
