This has to be one of the top sushi places in Burnaby. It has a great little atmosphere inside. The food and the presentation was excellent. The food was fes, rich and full of flavour. Grace went above and beyond to make the eating experience enjoyable. Lots of GF options. It is a little on the pricey side but you pay for great quality food. read more. As a customer, you can use the WiFi of the restaurant at no extra cost. What Zhenting_Li doesn't like about Sushi Modo_burnaby:

Chicken karage shoya ramen does not look as advertised, it should be a no brainer that ramen and chicken should be cooked separately before it's served, the resulting texture of fried chicken soaked in soup is absolutely disgusting. Apart from that, the other foods are mid-upper level and fast service as well since we are the only customers. read more. With a large selection of freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat, the Sushi Modo_burnaby from Burnaby prepares healthy, flavorful Japanese meals, among the delicacies of this establishment are especially the Sushi and Inside-Out. In addition, they proffer you tasty seafood menus, Besides, the inventive blend of different meals with new and partially adventurous products is appreciated by the customers - a good case of Asian Fusion.
