There's no way you can justify visiting Whistler and not stopping by here!! The food is fantastic--the sourdough is to die for and there's a good selection of other delicious baked goods (the cinnamon rolls were hearty and hit the spot). The atmosphere inside is welcoming and homey; you can see the entire bakery and watch as the items get made. Ed and Natasha are super friendly and make you feel right at home. Will be... chua doesn't like about Bred Organic Sourdough:

My husband popped in to get breakfast for us late one morning and... I think I was expecting more based on the ratings and reviews. The pecan cinnamon roll lacked the soft chewiness I'd have preferred. I had to double check that this was a vegan and not gluten-free bakery. The pemberton berry muffin had an odd oil taste that kind of reminds me of old lipstick. It was also nicely moist on the inside but a bit too dry an... read more. A visit to Bred Organic Sourdough becomes even more rewarding due to the extensive variety of coffee and tea specialties, here they serve a diverse brunch in the morning.
