We were actually on our way to a different Sushi Restaurant, but stopped at this one by mistake. Decided to have something here before moving on. The waitress was delightful, some of her English a little difficult to figure out, but she made herself understood. Full of smiles and laughter, which is always appreciated. Husband ordered their tuna dish, as that's his favorite wherever we go for Sushi, I stuck to my stan... read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in nice weather. What User doesn't like about Utage Sushi:

We show up, order and what happens? 10-15 people walking in for skip the dishes... that's their priority. It's so unprofessional having people coming to sit down for supper and wait over an hr to be served with random people sitting all over the restaurant waiting for their driver to deliver an order.
