This was a reasonably priced middle eastern restaurant which was halal. It was a short walk from our hotel and the service was attentive as it was not too busy when we went there. The chicken dish I had was very nice. read more. When the weather conditions are good you can also be served outside. What Donna D doesn't like about

Babylon Cafe:

It seems every time I go to this place they always have new employees first of all I had ordered chicken wrap and took it home. It kind of smelled off anyway. I woke up this morning with the worst stomach pain ever. Also, the staff were really rude. I will not even think to go there anymore for rotten food! read more. Babylon Cafe from Vancouver is a snug café, where you can enjoy a snack or cake with a steaming coffee or a hot chocolate. Customers often choose the fine, fluffy flatbread, which is perfect for dunking into the homemade hummus or a creamy yogurt dip; the unusual combination of figs and goat cheese undeniably also belongs to the delicious bits of the multifaceted Middle Eastern cuisine. Greek dishes like Gyros and Souvlaki with matching sides are also offered in the restaurant. Typically, the dishes are prepared for you in the shortest time and fresh.
