What Adrian K likes about Sitaara:

Came to this restaurant as I was driving through Toronto. I wanted something quick so I ordered the boneless chicken Biryani (I forgot the name of the actual dish). It was delicious, spicy--as in flavourful, but not overly hot. I will come back here to order more different dishes down the road so look forward to an update! read more. The rooms on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, and there is no-charge WLAN. What Atria doesn't like about Sitaara:

I had dosa and coffee from here as breakfast. It was not bad. But I felt like the masala in the dosa was slightly gone bad. I could feel the difference in taste. read more. The visitors love it when Asian cuisine meets a bit of creativity. That's exactly what you can expect at the Sitaara from Markham, with its successful Asian fusion cuisine - the perfect blend of familiar meets the adventurous world of fusion cuisine, One also prepares meals tastily and freshly with traditional Indian spices. The preparation of the menus is done authentically Asian, In the morning a delicious brunch is offered here.
