What Joseph Griffin likes about Bake49: Long line. Feels bad when the person in front of you clears out the entirety of one item. That said, the tarts were good and its packaging was also multi-tiered and fancy. The cheesecake was very delicious, with different textures and a nice balance of flavors. Premium price for premium quality. read more. What Alice L doesn't like about Bake49:

Got here right when the cheese tarts came out to see what the hype was about. First time trying a cheese tart although it was warm flaky, the tanginess of the cheese didn't blend together with the black sesame. It was just an odd taste, where the savory sweet didn't quite meld together. read more. With the comprehensive range of coffee and tea specialties, a visit to Bake49 becomes even more attractive, The magical desserts of the establishment also shine not only in the eyes of our little guests.
