the best pizza in richmond. finger lick good. enough is never enough. my favorite is the house special and spicy huh. I even eat the crust. leaps and border over everything else throughout the west coast. delicious salty melt in her mouth. if I died and went into the sky, is that pizza? I would expect it. love? good food. terrible customer service. People who answer the phone need much better training! I had some arguments with their employees who are rude and disrespectful and just don't watch. feels like I'm the one who trains them and management never gives back calls. it doesn't seem like they care about everything.!
