This Korean restaurant seems quite authentic. The food tastes good and the service is also great! This Resto is not too busy to my surprise because the quality of food is great! The Tangsuyuk was really good. Would come back! read more. As a visitor, you can use the WLAN of the establishment at no extra cost. What User doesn't like about Les Saisons De Corée:

I paid for 22$ plus taxes for pork to get this less portion of food and my friend paid almost 20$ to get a bowl of soup with 4 thin slices of beef. If I went to Chimaek Gana, I would get the same price but more foods and higher quality. Otherwise, the service is not really good. The waiter is not really friendly and welcome. read more. In the kitchen of Les Saisons De Corée in Montréal, traditional courses are prepared with original Asian spices tasty, and you may look forward to the delicious typical seafood cuisine. Korean dishes like Kimchi, Bap and Jjigae, which are traditional, always find their way onto the menu card and the tables of the guests, The successful fusion of different menus with fresh and partially daring products is highly valued by the visitors - a nice example of Asian Fusion.
