We've been to this restaurant with our family. We tried Karniyarik and Inkarbeyendi for entry, it was amazingly true to it's origin. The main meal was mixed turkish grilled meat including Doner Kebab, Iskender Kebab and Adena Kebab. By far, it's the best Doner we have ever eaten in Toronto area. The host, Mrs Nazila was friendly too! We really enjoyed our experience. read more. What Michael Kaler doesn't like about Village House/koyevi:

The food we got was tasty. However, they did not deliver the yogurt sauce or desert that we ordered, and they charged us for them. No one answered the phone when we called to see what happened. So yeah, good food but if you get it delivered, check your order twice before the delivery guy leaves. read more. A visit to Village House/koyevi becomes even more rewarding due to the large diversity of coffee and tea specialties, The guests also rave about the scrumptious, airy flatbread that can be dipped into the own hummus or a yoghurt dip; the exciting combination of figs with goat cheese is also one of the top-picks from the diverse cuisine of the Middle East. The restaurants serves a wide selection of scrumptious and fresh juices, In addition to that, the visitors of the establishment can also try typical menus from Turkey - from Sucuk to different Doner and even sticky-sweet desserts.
