Tamihi Cafe is a genuine little gem of a place. With simple, tasty, filling breakfasts or authentic Bibimbap and other hearty lunch options, there's a little bit of everything here to satisfy almost every diners needs. James, the owner, is incredibly personable and kind, and always goes above and beyond in his service. Everything here is affordable and well crafted for what you pay. Tamihi Cafe deserves your business... read more. What Jason P doesn't like about Tamihi Cafe:

Dont go here!! I was intrigued when I saw the Bibimbap and Benny's sign and went inside. No music and the vibe felt dead. I got the Tamihi burger and my partner got the bibimbap. The burger bun saw so soggy and lacked taste that I didn't end up finishing it. I've had lots of korean food and the Bibimbap was by far the worst I've ever had. No flavor whatsoever... take my warning and dont bother. You can make better fo... read more.
