This is the first must try Thai restaurant. Though it is kind of a street food type kitchen shop. But the food is awesome authentic street food tasty. Unbelievably tasteful. We ordered the fried chicken is crispy from start to end, and the boat noodle is another must try signature bowl. It is hard to describe how tasty it is. I will definitely comeback. read more. The restaurant offers free WLAN for its customers, And into the accessible spaces also come guests with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Unchai:

I'm pretty picky with my Asian food. I was excited to try this place, but I'm extremely disappointed. I ordered the Pad Thai and Gang Kua curry through UberEats. The Pad Thai is dry and clumped together with no sauce. The curry is tasteless and tiny in portion for a $30 item. Complete waste of money!PS. If you want good Thai food, go to Taste of Thai on Broadway. read more. From Vancouver comes Unchai and brings delicious dishes to the table, seasoned with the Thai culinary known spices and (fish-)sauces, in addition to freshly harvested vegetables, seafood and meat.
