Unique solo dining experience! Ideal for 1 or 2 people. You get to sit at your own booth with a curtain for privacy. You push a little button when you're ready to order. After ordering, it did not take long to get my food. I had the Karaage Tonkotsu. The fried chicken was my favourite part. It was crispy and well seasoned. The spicy sauce that came on the spoon was (in my humble opinion) not that spicy. If you have a... read more. What User doesn't like about Kumamoto Ramen:

Literally the worst ramen ever. I found the staff are friendly. The sitting, the water hose in front of you and the bear are lovely and worth mentioning. They charge you like a high-end ramen, but the soup base is just oil and salty, nothing profound or sophisticated. The black garlic ramen I ordered has no sign of black garlic sauce or flavour or look. I paid one visit for the bear- which tricked me, but I won't com... read more. In the kitchen of Kumamoto Ramen in Montréal, original Asian spices fine traditional menus are prepared, and a lot of freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat are used to cook healthy Japanese meals. The Asian fusion cuisine is likewise an important part of Kumamoto Ramen. Anyone who finds the normal and generally known meals too ordinary can here approach with a willingness to experiment and try some unexpected combination of ingredients taste.
