What User likes about Neptune Noodle Burnaby Fèng Míng Zhōu Miàn:

We were staying in Metrotown for an overnight stay. We were looking for a quick meal and found this on TA. The location was hard to find as it is located on second floor of a building with no signs outside. The noodle shop is located next to the Neptune seafood restaurant. The decor is clean and can handle parties with 4 or less. There are a couple of tables for larger party. We wanted to have the wonton noodle soups... read more. Stressful from the beginning people lined up outside (randomly standing around with no order), and no staff was coming out to let anyone know how long the wait, nor take down any names for an order of entry. Once we got in, they were still very unresponsive and were not much help with questions on ordering food. They also got the order wrong from what we marked on the sheet the place would hugely benefit from a mobile... read more.
