If you missed the first and second steps of my FEAST! adventure, then you should go check out my last blog posts about an amazing $38 set menu at Hotpot Palace and $48 set menu at Mr. Bro Bistro Izakaya. You have now until Monday, November 18 to have a taste of the Feast: Asian Dining Festival. For my last stop, I invited my friends to join me at Continental Seafood Restaurant to enjoy a $178 set menu for 6 people. read more. The restaurant offers complimentary WLAN for its customers. What ERIC LEE doesn't like about Continental Seafood:

All-day dim sum with push-cart. Sizeable interior. Good atmosphere. Underwhelming food, too salty. More expensive than competing restaurants. Free plaza parking. read more. The extensive variety of coffee and tea specialties greatly enhances the value of a visit to Continental Seafood, on the menu there are also a lot of Asian menus. Would you rather enjoy the food in your own four walls or on a special occasion like a ceremony? Thanks to the in-house catering, that's no problem, Furthermore, the customers love the successful combination of different menus with new and partially experimental products - a good example of successful Asian Fusion.
