We were staying at the nearby Four Points hotel so gave this place a try. It was peak dinner hour on a weekend, and the place was super crowded. The food was fine but the property is so large (so many different eating areas) that it was hard to catch the attention of the wait staff. Would return if less busy. read more. You can use the WiFi of the place at no extra cost, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for guests with wheelchairs or physical disabilities.

What Wilber Kshlerin doesn't like about Délice Restaurant Nightclub:

Perhaps I just ordered the wrong food but it was terrible. When you see a menu with such a variety of food you know that they are grabbing at straws. My partner ordered a pasta dish with chicken and cream sauce. The portion was small and the sauce over salted. I ordered the Thai soup (separated liquid, tasteless) and the quinoa and beet salad. The soup was inedible (still charged full price for it) and the salad was n...
